

Lesley Stowe's Raincoast Crisps, about $6.99/170g

I'm a fan of the cheese course, but not all the baguette and/or nut bread that goes with it. These Vancouver-made crackers, filled with all sorts of flavour boosters, make the cheese shine through without all that added heaviness (or carbs!). They also make a great support for sliced smoked fish or mousse, hummus, prosciutto or any dip. Available in fig and olive, cranberry and hazelnut, spicy sun-dried tomato and rosemary raisin.

Available at most gourmet and cheese shops such as Hamel at the Jean Talon Market.
